3. Significance

Also known as the Entertainment Capital of the World, Las Vegas is renowned for its mega casino-hotels and the associated entertainment. The casinos and hotels are the major attractions in Las Vegas. Most casinos in downtown Las Vegas are located on the Fremont Street Experience. Opened in 1906, the Golden Gate Hotel and Casino located along the Fremont Street Experience in the downtown area, is Las Vegas' oldest continuously operating hotel and casino. The city also features museums such as the Neon Museum, the Mob Museum, Nevada State Museum, Old Las Vegas Mormon State Historic Park and the Discovery Children's Museum. The Downtown Arts District hosts numerous events and galleries.

4. History

The earliest inhabitants in Las Vegas were Paleo-Indians. They were in the area over 10,000 years ago. Many other tribes followed. The first non-native American to enter the valley was a Mexican named Rafael Rivera. Las Vegas means 'the meadows' in Spanish. The reason for this is the wild grass that grew there. Las Vegas as a city was founded in 1905 and was incorporated as a city in 1911. The first Casino to come up in Las Vegas was The Mirage in 1989.

5. Cultural identity

Contrary to belief, Las Vegas is also home to various museums and historic parks. The downtown arts district plays host to various events. The region has a celebration of music, arts, and food on the first Friday of each month. Las Vegas is also home to various theatres for performing arts. Broadway shows include ballet, jazz, choir, opera and orchestral performances.

Index*6. Natural resources

The growing demand for water to support the rapid growth of Las Vegas has put a lot of pressure on the natural resources of the area. The fear is that supply of water will not meet the growing demand for it. The US Geological Survey shows that unless ground water can be utilized in a more balanced way, problems of land subsidence will keep growing.

11. Key local guides and tours

There are many local guides and tours both private and public that can help you with all the information needed for a successful vacation in Las Vegas. If you have to go for a private local guide, then do your booking at least a month prior to the tour since their availability at the last minute is minimal. These local tour guides are licensed and certified professionals with years of experience in the industry. Taking a tour with them is really informative. This city is famous for its lights, and the best way for you to experience the view of this city is from above! Embark on the tours via helicopter and hover above this city during the night. You will have the same feeling as if it were daytime. The length of such tours is about 12 to 15 minutes, one of the most thrilling experiences there is, and that's for sure. The price of these tours start from $99. Few of the famous local tours are: Big Bus Tours: The best way to see and learn about the city is to take one of these bus tours. These are open-top buses. Therefore, everything you will need to do is sit back, take some wonderful pictures of the views and enjoy the ride. The location which this tour covers is Las Vegas Strip and the price of a ticket is $37 per person. Lake Mead Cruises: This cruise allows you to see the outstanding sights of red and gold-colored mountains. The length of this tour is around 90 minutes to 120 minutes, in other words, 2 hours in total. The price of a ticket is $26 per person. The famous local guides in the city are Khriiss U. who's available for private tours, small group tours, welcomes custom trip request and enjoys sharing the amazing landscapes with the customers. Rachel F. is a tour guide who's fun, passionate, knowledgeable, and an experienced tour leader who can make your vacation, an enjoyable one, in Las Vegas. Barbara V. is another famous tour guide who looks forward to make you discover Las Vegas's history, its features, attractions and helps her customers create unforgettable memories on their stay in the city. George G. is a certified Las Vegas tour guide and knows all of the Vegas hot spots and can show really amazing things in the city to the visitors that they could most rarely see otherwise.
