7.1.1. Fortress Hohensalzburg

Perhaps the most recognizable spot in the city, this 900-year-old fortress is one of the biggest and best-preserved fortresses in the whole of Europe. Accessible by a speedy ride in the Festungsbahn funicular or a 20-minute walk from the city center, the castle was first built in 1077 by Gebhard von Helfenstein, although much of what is seen now dates back to the 16th century. One of the highlights of the castle is the Golden Hall which was used for lavish banquets, and today it is used for year-round concerts which mostly focus on Mozart's works. Also of note are the Church of St George in the courtyard and the Fortress Museum which displays medieval weapons and gruesome torture devices.
