1. Geographical location

Copenhagen is the largest city in Denmark beautifully located on the eastern shore of the island of Zealand. It is a part of Øresund region and is separated from Sweden by Øresund water strait.

Index

2. Neighbouring cities/countries

The Closest Cities To Copenhagen Are Malmo, Sweden (20 Kms); Odense, Denmark (141 Kms); Binz, Germany (155 Kms); Stralsund, Germany (155 Kms); Aarhus, Denmark (160 Kms); Rostock, Germany (178 Kms); Kiel, Germany (214 Kms) And Gothenburg, Sweden (229 Kms) To Name A Few.

3. Significance

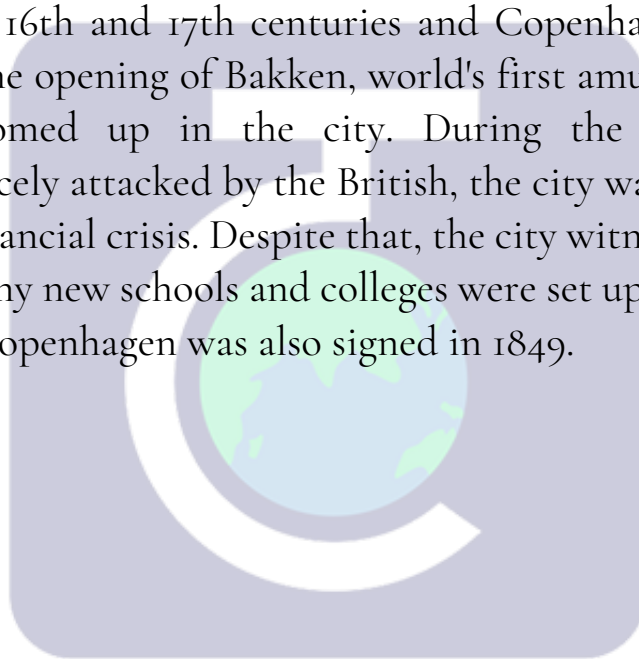

Copenhagen is the capital of one of the happiest countries on this planet. It is also known as the one of the most environment friendly cities in the world. Because of its environmental standards, it was elected as the Top Green City in the Global Green Economy Index in 2014.

Index

4. History

The history of the city of Copenhagen dates back to the 11th century. It was founded by Bishop Absalon, who was a counselor for the then-king of Denmark. The city grew at a tremendous speed throughout the 12th century due to its prime position and harbour which made it a strong military and political center. In 1443, it was designated as the capital of Denmark. There was a lot of religious upheaval during the 16th and 17th centuries and Copenhagen witnessed major changes. Also with the opening of Bakken, world's first amusement park, a lot of restaurants mushroomed up in the city. During the 19th century, after Copenhagen was fiercely attacked by the British, the city was bombarded heavily and it went into a financial crisis. Despite that, the city witnessed a rapid spike in education sector. Many new schools and colleges were set up during this time and the constitution of Copenhagen was also signed in 1849.

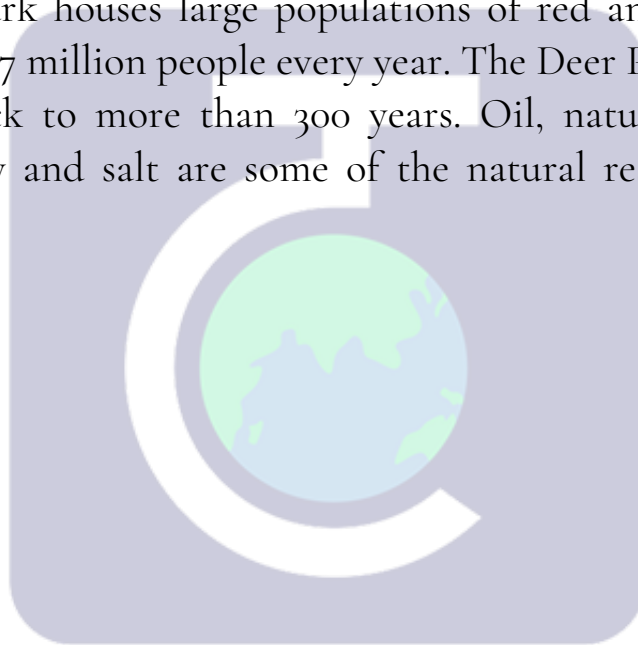

5. Cultural identity

Copenhagen is a city chockablock with concert halls, theatres, art galleries and numerous historic monuments which act as a window into the rich cultural heritage of the city. The cultural diversity of Copenhagen can be seen in its rich cuisine, magnificent architecture, world class art, theatrical performances and film festivals. The wonderful Copenhagen Opera House is a must visit for the culture vultures. Designed by Henning Larsen, a world famous architect, the Opera House is acknowledged as one of the most modern opera houses in the world. Similarly there are various dance events and music festivals for people to enjoy. If you want to see Danish contemporary dancers, a visit to Dansehallerne centre and The Royal Danish Ballet is a must. The city is also known for its grand film festivals. The folklore is comprised of dance, songs, costumes, legends, traditions and puppets, as passed from one generation to another. So far as the people of Copenhagen are concerned, Danes are officially considered to be the happiest people on Earth. And you will never feel like an outsider in the city.

6. Natural resources

Lying close to the heart of Copenhagen is the Amager Nature Centre. This big, grassy park is one of the best spots to relax and unwind in Copenhagen. There is also a huge adventure playground close to Amager Nature Centre where visitors can indulge in various games and activities. More popularly known as 'The deer Park', Jægersborg Dyrehave is a forest park lying in the north of the city of Copenhagen. The park houses large populations of red and fallow deer and is visited by more than 7 million people every year. The Deer Park is an old one and its history dates back to more than 300 years. Oil, natural gas, gravel, sand, limestone chalk, clay and salt are some of the natural resources found in the Danish underground.

12. Key local guides and tours

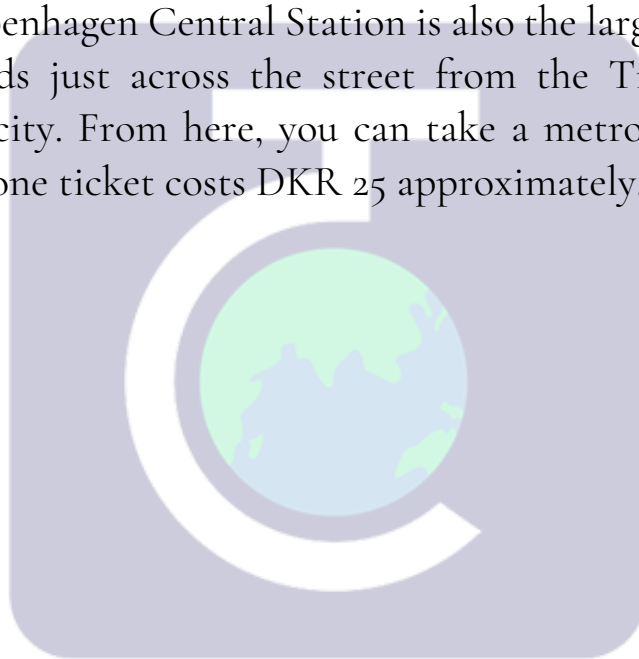

Copenhagen is small enough to explore by yourself. However, if you are not a big fan of walking alone or you are not very familiar with the good sights, you might like to book a private tour guide. The city has end number of sightseeing tours that allow you to explore city like a local. It has 48 hour hop on hop off tour which you can tailor as per your likes and interests. Also very well-known is the bike tour which goes on for 3 hours and lets you explore the city on cycles. You can get a comprehensive overview of the city in the Copenhagen walking tour, which is also for people who run short on time. For people who like tasting different cuisines, a food tour also takes place here, where you are taken for a short walk through the center to taste and understand the culinary scene of Denmark.

13. Transportation hubs

Airport: Copenhagen Airport or Kastrup is the main international airport of Copenhagen. You can take a metro from the Metro Station in Terminal 3. It takes 15 minutes and costs DKR 34.50. You might also like a train to downtown Copenhagen. It leaves every 20 minutes from CPH and takes around half an hour. A one-way ticket costs DKR 34.50. Taxis can be had for DKR200 approximately.

Railway Station: Copenhagen Central Station is also the largest railway station in the country. It stands just across the street from the Tivoli Gardens in the western part of the city. From here, you can take a metro, bus or taxi to your destination. A two-zone ticket costs DKR 25 approximately.

14. Transportation cost

Copenhagen has an integrated system for metro, trains, buses and taxis. a) Metro: Ranked as one of the best metros in the world, the Copenhagen Metro is in service round the clock. Trains leave every 2-5 minutes and you can use the same ticket on buses and trains in Copenhagen as well. b) Trains The suburbs and the nearby towns of Copenhagen are connected by the red colored 'S' trains. They run between 5 am till 12.30 am. c) Buses Buses in Copenhagen have the same ticketing system as the metro and S trains. The primary buses are A-buses. They serve at all hours and leave every 3-10 minutes. Night buses operate from 1 am till 5 am. d) Taxi The three most popular taxi operators in Copenhagen are Taxa 4x35, Dantaxi and TaxiNord. The minimum fare is Dkr 40 and Dkr 15 for every 1 kilometer thereafter. e) Bikes Copenhagen is among the most bike-friendly cities in the world. Its cycle tracks are extensively used and even other cities are beginning to adopt Copenhagen's biking style and infrastructure. You can easily rent a bike from your hotel or a rental shop. City pass and Copenhagen Card If you want to enjoy unlimited travel on metro, buses and trains in Copenhagen within zones 1-4, you might like getting a City Pass. There are two types of passes: 24-hour pass which costs Dkr 80 for adults and Dkr 40 for children and a 72-hour pass which costs Dkr 200 for adults and Dkr 100 for children. There is a Copenhagen Card too that qualifies you to enter 75 main attractions of Copenhagen free of cost. It also allows discounts on restaurants, shops and car hires in the city. The card can be obtained upon arrival in Copenhagen Airport. A 24 hour pass costs Dkr 380 for adults and Dkr 200 for children whereas a 72 hour pass costs Dkr 530 for adults and Dkr 270 for children.

15. Baggage allowance

There is no set limit on the amount of luggage you can bring on public transport in Copenhagen. You can take baby prams without any charge on all means of public transportation. Small pets can also travel for free on metro, buses and trains when carried in a bag not bigger than 100 x 60 x 30 cms.

16. Must try food and local savouries

To describe Danish food in one sentence: It is organic and made of seasonal ingredients. In the past, Danish cuisine was not greatly sought but there has been a drastic change over the years, especially after the opening of 'Noma'. Copenhagen, today, has become a leading gastronomic destination! i) Smørrebrød Smørrebrød, a typical Danish lunch item, is an open faced sandwich and almost every restaurant in Copenhagen serves it. It comes in many varieties (Rullepølse, Røget laks, Stjernesked etc) and is commonly served with the famous Danish Beer. When in Denmark, you must try it. Schønnemann is the place to go for the best Danish smørrebrød (open sandwiches) and schnapps in Copenhagen. ii) Gule ærter This is a delicious pea soup served with salted pork and vegetables. iii) Brunede kartofler These are caramelized potatoes. They form a popular part of the Christmas dinner in Copenhagen. iv) Akvavit (snaps) Typical Danish herbed spirit made of potatoes and served chilled along with food. v) Æbleflæsk (Apple pork) Originating from the rural Danish country kitchens, Apple Pork is one of the oldest dishes in the Danish cuisine. It is made from three simple ingredients: apples, onions and streaky pork and forms an important part of the Danish Christmas dinner. vi) Øllebrød A delicious pudding made from rye bread, beer and sugar. vii) Boller i karry This is a traditional Danish pork recipe. It is made of meatballs with curry sauce and cucumber salad. It is a hot favourite of Danes of almost all age groups. viii) Rye bread and beer This combination has for thousands of years been a basic part of the daily food consumption in Denmark. Danish Rye bread is less sweet and darker as compared to the rye bread from other Scandinavian countries. The Danish also have an impressive variety of fruit wines and bitters. When in Copenhagen during winters, you must try Gløgg which is a hot spiced punch made from red wine, brandy and sherry or Mjød (mead). For those who are looking out for something non-alcoholic in Copenhagen, the city has the finest cup of hot chocolate or hot Hyldeblomstsaft waiting for you.

Index19. Shopping

Copenhagen has Danish design at every corner, a modern take on the cool, open minded spirit and contemporary fashion. It is a shopping haven for the visitors. The main and most visited shopping streets are Strøget and Købmagergade studded with international brands and famous other stores. In Copenhagen you will find both beautiful, classic department stores as well as modern shopping malls offering everything. So far as souvenirs go, don't forget to bring home the world famous 'Danish sweets' like Pålægsschokolade (chocolate bread), Flødeboller (chocolate covered marshmallows), and Sømøds Bolcher (traditional candy). You may also choose from a nice selection of Christmas ornaments and Porcelain.

20. Tourist benefits

The VAT is 25% and is refundable to non-EU residents. You can get a refund (minus fees) in Denmark if it is the last EU country visited before your return home. To be eligible, you need to spend at least 300 DKR in one shop on one day. You will be given a form and check that need to be stamped by the custom authorities. It can be cashed with two companies: Global Blue Denmark A/S and Tax Free Worldwide Denmark.

21. Essential local apps

CPH Airport is the official app of Copenhagen Airport. It is available on both Android and Google Play. Another great mobile application is Mobilbilletter which can be used for finding the ticket price and location the best route for your destination.

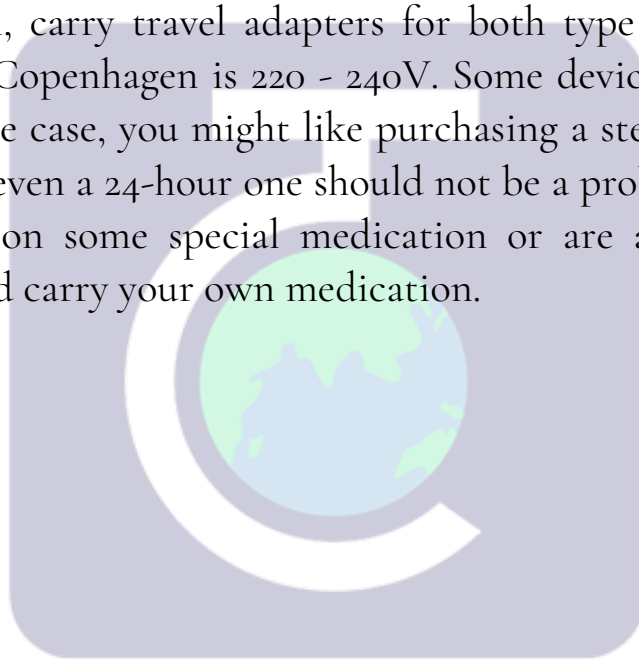

22. Driving

Resident of EU Countries, USA, Canada, or Australia don't need an International License for driving in Copenhagen or Denmark in general. You must carry your actual license along with International License (International Driving Permit), in case you are not from the above mentioned countries.

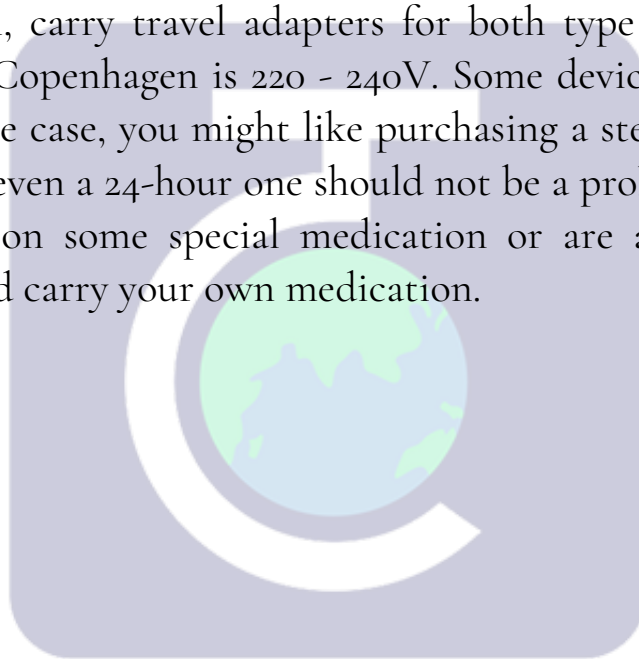

23. Travel essentials

The standard electricity supply in Denmark is 220-240 volt, 50 Hz AC and it has its own socket. The Danish standard plug has two round pins. The non-grounded Europlug and Schuko will fit without an adapter. If coming from the United States, you will also need a converter to change the voltage. Electric sockets in Denmark are either the “Type K” or “Type F” although the former is more common. If essential, carry travel adapters for both type of sockets. Also the Voltage supplied in Copenhagen is 220 - 240V. Some devices only work at 110 - 120 V and if that's the case, you might like purchasing a step down transformer. Finding a pharmacy even a 24-hour one should not be a problem in Copenhagen, however if you are on some special medication or are allergic to particular medicines, you should carry your own medication.

25. Local currency

The currency in Denmark is Danish Krone (Dkr or DKR). 1 US $ = 6.53 Dkr.

26. Change vendor's commission, ATM charges

Money exchange is not hard in Denmark as there are numerous banks and exchange kiosks. There are places that accept Euros and USDs and give back the change in Kroners. This is not the best way to transact in Copenhagen as the exchange rate won't be to your benefit. It is generally cheaper to withdraw money from an ATM and it can be easily located in the city. Please confirm with your bank if they charge any fee for cash withdrawal overseas. Visa and Mastercard are widely accepted in Copenhagen with one exception. Supermarkets, however, usually accept only Danish cards. Banks are open from 10 am till 4pm, Monday to Friday. Be careful while paying with a foreign Credit Card in Copenhagen. Most shops charge a fee of 2-3% on credit cards, often without telling the customers. Most banks in Copenhagen will charge you a fee for ATM withdrawals (5-10% usually) in addition to the fee charged by your banks. Kindly check with your bank for the same.

27. Staying connected

It is easy to connect to the Internet in Copenhagen. The S-trains serving the city have free Wi-Fi, for which you only need to have registered with Gratis Danmark beforehand to access. McDonalds, other chains and petrol stations offer Wi-Fi too, but usually for a nominal fee. There are also many internet cafés and libraries that allow tourists to connect. There are several Wi-Fi spots in the city and also you can get free Wi-Fi in most hotels and hostels in Copenhagen. There are 4 major mobile network providers in Denmark: ● TDG ● Telenor ● Telia ● 3(Tre) The coverage is good for all networks in the country. You may get a new SIM card for around Dkr 30 - Dkr 50 with the same amount credited to you. You can also use any data plans which cost around Dkr 100 for 5 GB of data.

28. Time Zone

Copenhagen falls in CET (UTC/GMT +1 hour). The daylight saving time is in effect from March to October.

29. Languages

The official language of Copenhagen is Danish. English is very common as a second language. German is also spoken.

30. Political Scenario

Denmark has a one-chamber parliament called Folketinget. It comprises of 179 members and is based in Copenhagen in the Christiansborg Palace. The municipal council of Copenhagen has 55 representatives and is chaired by the Lord Mayor. The members are elected every 4 years and they hold weekly meetings around topics of employment, health care, finance, social services, leisure etc.

31. Economic Scenario

Copenhagen is among the key financial centres of Northern Europe. The city has a healthy economy with a long term stable growth and low rate of unemployment. Income per capita is above the national average and the city accounts for as much as 40% of Denmark's total output. Tourism also plays an important role in the city's economy. The city has ambitious targets and aims to be carbon neutral by the end of 2025.

Index32. Religious belief

Christianity (Evangelical Lutheran followed by 95%) is the most prominent religion in Copenhagen. Protestants and Roman Catholics form the next 3%. Remaining 2% of the total population are muslims. Although Denmark is not exactly a secular country, most Danes consider themselves to be secular.

33. Visa requirements

Visa is not required for entry into Denmark if one is a citizen of a Nordic country or EU/ EEA country. It is advisable to keep 2 pages free in your passport for arrival and departure stamps. In certain cases, it has been observed that applying and receiving a visa can be a process of 20-30 days. Hence, it is essential that you check the timeline with the relevant authority in the country where you intend to make the visa application. In addition to this, there are several countries that are exempt from a VISA requirement for Denmark, which are listed at: https://www.nyidanmark.dk/en-us/coming_to_dk/visa/need_visa/who_needs_visa.htm

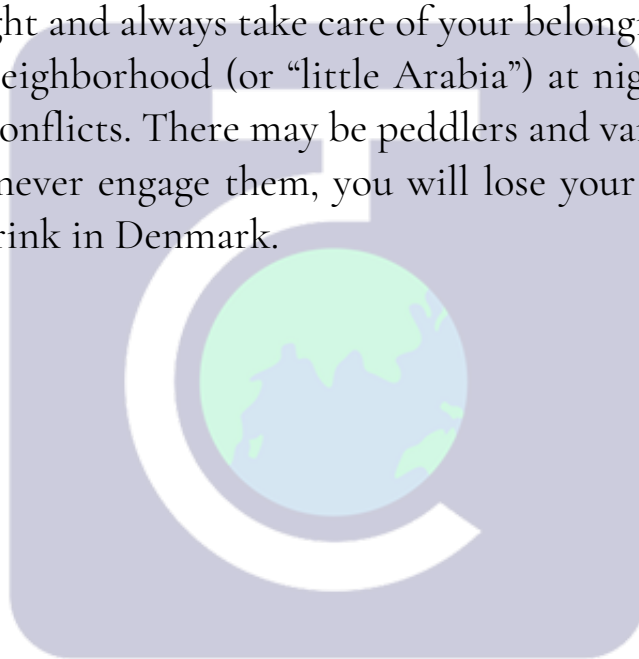

34. Essential vaccination

In general, no special immunizations or medications are necessary for travel to Denmark. Because of a recent increase in measles cases, all travelers born after 1956 should make sure they have had either two documented measles immunizations or a blood test showing measles immunity. Vaccinations: Measles, mumps, rubella (MMR): Two doses recommended for all travelers born after 1956, if not previously given Tetanus-diphtheria: Revaccination recommended every 10 years Influenza: Recommended for all travelers from November through April

Index35. Theft and Safety

Denmark is a very safe country and there are very few incidents of theft or violent crime. You should not face any problems, although it is good to exercise a little caution in crowded areas. Copenhagen is considered one of the safest cities in Europe. There have been some cases of gang violence recently, but those have never been targeted at tourists. Exercise your common sense, avoid abandoned or poorly-lit areas at night and always take care of your belongings. Try to stay away from the Nørrebro neighborhood (or “little Arabia”) at night – this is the main hub of gang-related conflicts. There may be peddlers and various gamblers on the pedestrian streets – never engage them, you will lose your money for sure. The tap water is safe to drink in Denmark.

Index36. Embassy/Consulate

Several countries have their consulates in Copenhagen. If you want to check if your country has representation in Copenhagen, visit: <http://embassy.goabroad.com/embassies-in/denmark>

37. Accessibility

The city of Copenhagen is well-prepared for the disabled. Many sites are wheelchair-accessible, except for a few shops may which may be hard to get to. Visit the tourist office opposite the main station for a brochure with extensive information regarding accessibility in Copenhagen.

38. Emergencies

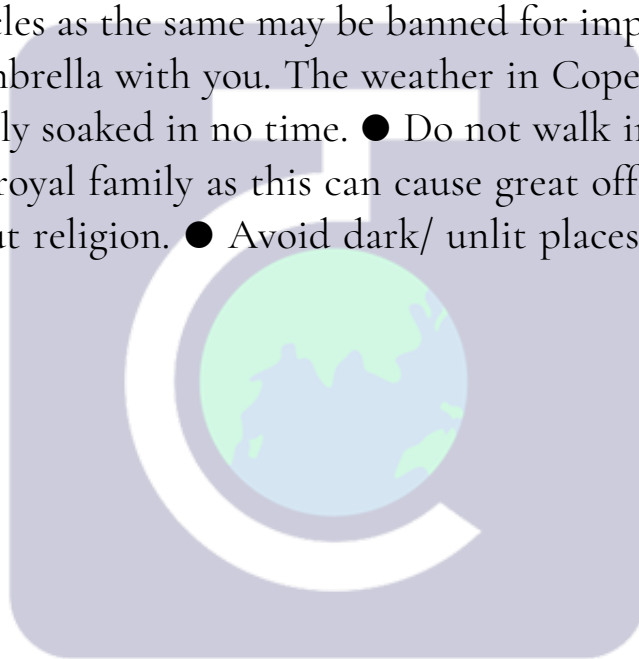

Citizens of EU with compulsory health insurance are covered for medical expenses which are reimbursed to you if you present a European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) to the medical practitioner. Visitors who come from a country outside of the EU are advised to take out a valid, private medical insurance to cover medical expenses in Copenhagen. Bispebjerg Hospital (55.712854, 12.541008) is one major hospital in Copenhagen and also has a 24-hour emergency ward. Emergency numbers: Emergency assistance: 112 Police assistance: 114

39. Do's and Don'ts

Dos ● Do carry your passport ● Do carry your ID at all times ● Do rent a bike when in Copenhagen. That is the most 'local' way to get around and explore the city. ● Do visit the museums. The Danish collections are amazing. ● It is advisable to carry a certified doctor's prescription along with the medicines to ensure hassle free import clearance. ● It is advisable that do not carry unsealed/ unbranded food articles as the same may be banned for import. Don'ts ● Do not forget to carry an umbrella with you. The weather in Copenhagen is changeable and you can get totally soaked in no time. ● Do not walk in the bicycle lanes. ● Do not mock at the royal family as this can cause great offense. ● Do not enter into discussions about religion. ● Avoid dark/ unlit places, especially if you are alone.

Index40.Tipping basics

Service charges are included in the bill. If you have been really satisfied with the service, rounding up the bill is always appreciated. Most restaurants and bars in Copenhagen add a service charge to your bill, so tipping is not necessary. You may round up the payable amount. It is common to tip taxi drivers 10% over the fare.

Index41.Pet info

A lot of Danes have pets, especially dogs and you should not have problems with finding accommodation that suits your pets or other facilities which may be required when traveling with pets. Denmark has similar regulations on pets as other EU nations like vaccination for pets with microchip tagging that has to be done at least 21 days before entry into Denmark. For pets coming from countries with high incidence of rabies, it is very important that the pets pass the titer test. Unvaccinated pets cannot enter Denmark and since Rabies vaccination cannot be given before 12 weeks, the youngest a puppy can enter Denmark is 3 months and 22 days. Some dog breeds are not permitted in Denmark.
