3. Significance

Lagos is a fantastic historical town and one of the most favorite holiday destinations across the entire Europe. The city has a scenery very different from the rest of Portugal and is specifically known worldwide for its wonderful geography which includes beautiful coastline, hills and various beautiful orchards. Other than the magnificent landscape, the city is also known for providing an immense variety of outdoor activities like watersports, dolphin watching and off-road jeep safaris to name a few. The region also boasts of some of the top golf courses in the continent.

4. History

Lagos boasts of a rich history that goes back to as many as 2000 years. It used to be an important harbour, colonized by the Romans and integrated into the Roman province of Lusitania. With the fall of Rome, the city was occupied by the Visigoths the Byzantines during the 6th century and later in the 8th century by the Moors. This is when Lagos was fortified and also became a part of the greater Algarve region. In 1755, a big earthquake and the resulting tsunami swept across and devastated the Algarve coast, and caused huge destruction in Lagos. Many of the city's important buildings were damaged. Not just this, the earthquake also removed the political importance of the city as the Governor of the Algarve moved to Tavira.

5. Cultural identity

Beach life is an inherent part of life in Lagos and the Algarve's Western Atlantic coast is a favourite with the people of Lagos. Local traditions range from gastronomy to traditional handicrafts. One can see that cafés and pastelarias are an important part of the day-to-day culture of the locals. The city's calendar is laced with various festivals and carnivals. It is said that the Algarvios really know how to party and they invest a good deal of time and effort on planning the events. The local culture and many of its representing works are preserved in the city's museums.

Index6. Natural resources

Portugal may not be very well endowed with agricultural resources but it is rich in mineral resources including but not limited to gold, tin, copper, iron ore, marble, rock salt, uranium, and wolframite.

12. Key local guides and tours

Lagos has many layers of history and its charms are abundant. Having a friendly guide by your side just helps to make the most of your stay in the city. Some of the most popular private guided tours in the city are listed below: i) Rosemary S. Rosa is a certified guide and has been living and working in Algarve region for 29 years. She prefers to guide private tours over big groups. She is fluent in English, French and Italian. She is willing to devise and schedule tours according to your specific interests and needs.

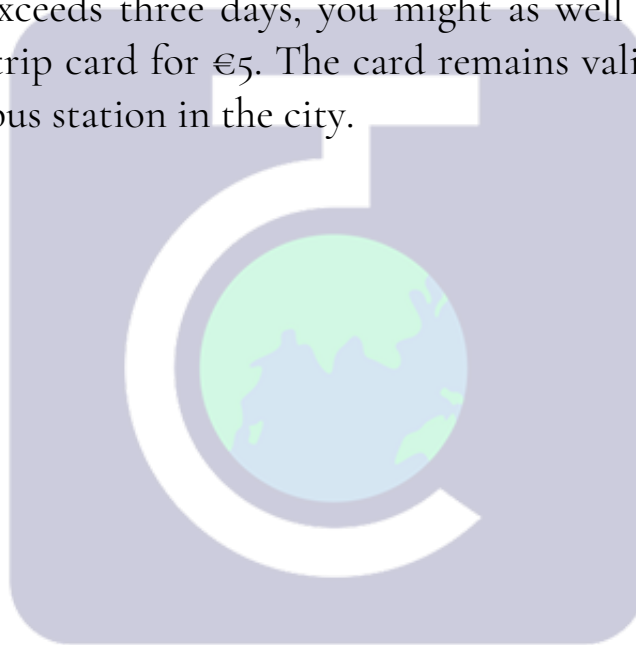

13. Transportation hubs

Airport The nearest international airport to Lagos is Faro Airport (37.017604, -7.969720) and it is 90 kms to the East of Lagos. The fastest route from Faro airport to Lagos is using the A22 toll expressway. The A22 route takes approximately one hour whereas the non-express route (following the N125) is not very predictable owing to heavy traffic and poor roads. You can also opt for shared transfer in an 8 seater minibus or a larger coach. Fares start at €20-30 per person depending on the season. Train journey from Faro Airport to Lagos takes 1 hour 40 minutes and a single ticket only costs €7.30. The last train departure from Faro to Lagos is at 20:00hrs. For evening or late flight arrivals, it is advised that you always pre-book a transfer. The bus journey is slightly cheaper than the train and a single ticket costs €5.90. A private shuttle costs around €70-72 for 1-4 people (more at night and on public holidays) and takes approximately 1 hour. Taxi charge around €90 and take around 50 minutes to reach. Bus Station (37.107159, -8.676236) The bus station in the city is located right next to the bridge that connects the center of town with the Marina. There is a Goodtimes map in the waiting room to help orientate yourself with the city when you arrive. Railway Station (37.108239, -8.671211) The train station in Lagos stands just behind the marina and it is a very short walk across the marina bridge to the Avenida dos Descobrimentos to catch any of the buses for onward travel.

14. Transportation cost

Lagos is a compact city and you can pretty much cover all of it by walking. If you are not a big fan of walking however, the city has an efficient system of buses called the 'Onda' network of local buses to help you get around easily and at a reasonable cost. The bus service has 8 routes and operates between 7 am and 8 pm every day. Services are restricted at night and on weekends/ public holidays. If your stay in Lagos exceeds three days, you might as well like purchasing a rechargeable multiple trip card for €5. The card remains valid for 5 years and can be bought from any bus station in the city.

15. Baggage allowance

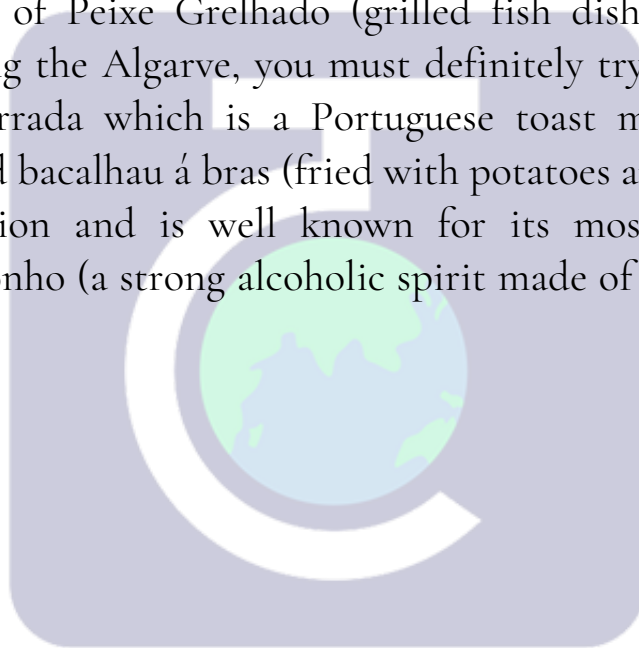

Free baggage limit for most buses/ trains in Lagos is one item of hand luggage and two items of baggage. Backpacks, however, are easy and most comfortable to carry around the city.

16. Must try food and local savouries

Among the most common Portuguese dishes are Alheira de Mirandela (a type of fowl sausage), salted codfish (Bacalhau à Lagareiro, Bacalhau à Gomes de Sá and Bacalhau à Brás being most popular), bifanas (juicy pork steak sandwiches), francesinha (contains two slices of bread interspersed by steak, ham, sausage and chorizo), Sardinhas (sardines), Kyodai Sushi, Caldo Verde (green soup). Main course is comprised of Peixe Grelhado (grilled fish dishes) and carne (meat dishes). When visiting the Algarve, you must definitely try fresh fish. Also, not worth a miss is Torrada which is a Portuguese toast made from a specific Portuguese bread and bacalhau á bras (fried with potatoes and onions). Lagos is a wine producing region and is well known for its moscatel wine, and the aguardente de medronho (a strong alcoholic spirit made of berries of strawberry tree).

19. Shopping

If you like shopping you are sure to love Lagos. The city is world famous for its lovely cork products, ceramic dishes and tiles and many other local crafts. i) AlgarveShopping Mall Located just a few minutes drive from Casa Romantica, AlgarveShopping is a popular two storey shopping center. It offers everything from a huge range of well-known fashion and lifestyle brand names to cinemas and food-court. ii) Centro Comercial Aqua Portimão Aqua Portimão is known to provide the best Shopping experience in Algarve. It is set over two shopping floors and has a food court and 3 levels of parking. You will find a good range of retail outlets and food outlets there. iii) Candido dos Reis This is a hot favourite street for clothing shops in Lagos. iv) Intermarche Supermarket Intermarche is an international supermarket with branches across Algarve. Overall it is a great place to pick up supplies if you are in town and don't want to eat out every night. Also in the back-right is a great Portuguese rotisserie chicken counter for take-out. v) Fish Market Lagos Set on the main Avenida, opposite the marina is the famous Fish Market of Lagos. It hosts three floors of magnificently fresh produce including fruits, fish, herbs etc.

20. Tourist benefits

In Portugal, the VAT rate ranges between 6% to 23%. If you are a non EU citizen, you are eligible for a VAT refund provided you spend a minimum of €50 on goods that you export within 90 days of your purchase. To avail this benefit, all you are required to do is look for stores with tax free shopping signboard, get the VAT reimbursement receipt from the store at the time of your purchase, fill it out carefully and get it stamped from the customs authorities on your final departure. Kindly note, there is no refund without completed forms, receipts attached and customs validation.

Index21. Essential local apps

Portugal off.Guide is a useful mobile app for tourists in Lagos. It helps users with offline city and road maps. It also has a great currency and language converter. Visit Algarve is another useful app for tourists. It is the official mobile app for Algarve region and provides information on local places and events.

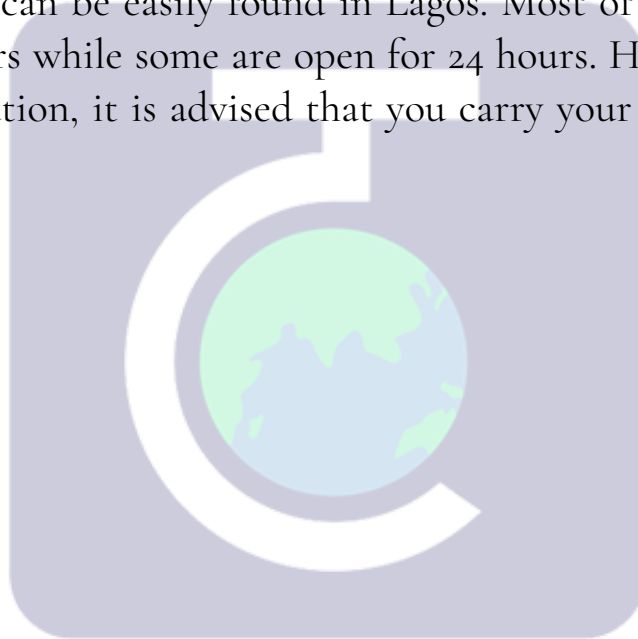

22. Driving

Lagos is a beach town and driving opportunities are rather limited in the city. Roads in Lagos are hilly, narrow and the signage is rather weak. However for those who still wish to drive, the legal driving age in the city is 18. The driver must hold a full license for minimum 2 years with no major endorsements as well as an International Driving Permit (IDP). While driving in the city, make sure you do not cross the cobblestone bike path. The locals take biking very seriously and it may cause a quarrel on the street.

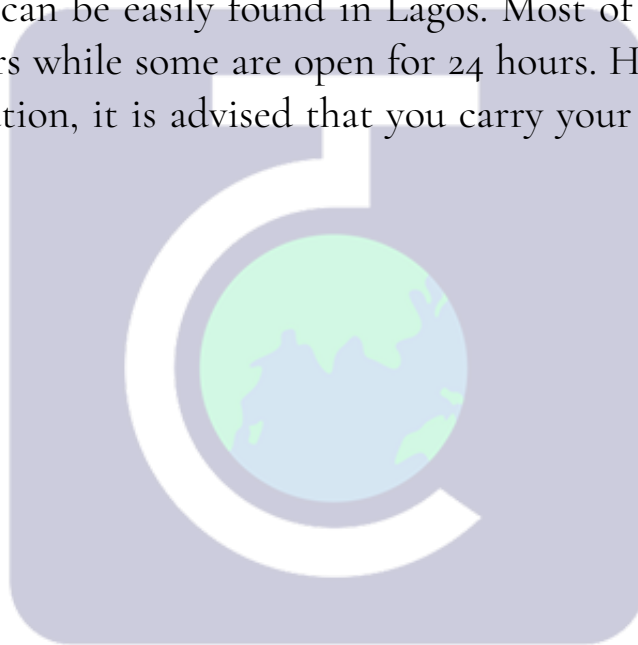

23. Travel essentials

Like most of continental Europe, Portugal is on the 230-250 Volts. The standard electrical socket (outlet) in the country is of "Type C" with two round pins. If the plug of your appliances does not match the shape of these sockets, you will need a travel plug adapter during your stay in Lagos. Most battery chargers have a built-in voltage converter, but you might need one if coming from a non-European country. Pharmacies can be easily found in Lagos. Most of them operate during normal working hours while some are open for 24 hours. However, if you are on some specific medication, it is advised that you carry your medicines from your home country.

24. Essential clothes

25. Local currency

The official currency of Portugal is Euro (€). One Euro equals to 1.13 USD. Major credit cards (including VISA, MasterCard, American Express etc) are accepted in the city but not everywhere. It is advised that you must always carry some cash handy for small purchases.

Index26. Change vendor's commission, ATM charges

For international money transfers and currency exchange, you must check out exchange bureaux located in the various banks. ATM machines are scattered all around the city and it is not difficult to find one for cash withdrawals. ATM withdrawals and credit card charges are likely to incur a typical surcharge of $1 to $5 per withdrawal. Kindly connect with your bank for more information on international withdrawal fees.

27. Staying connected

There are 3 major mobile network providers in Lagos: ● Vodafone ● Optimus, and ● TMN There is a standard mobile network (GSM 900/ 1800/ GPRS) in the country and you should check beforehand if your phone is compatible, especially if you're coming from the US. If you plan to stay in the city for a longer period of time, you might as well consider buying a Portugal SIM card. A photocopy your passport or ID card will be required for the same. There are no major public Wi-Fi services in the city. However, it is quite easy to locate a cyber cafe where you can access internet for €2 to €3 per hour. A good number of cafés and fast food joints also offer wireless connection.

28. Time Zone

Lagos falls under WET (Western European Time): No UTC/ GMT offset.
Daylight Saving Time +1 hour from March to October.

29. Languages

The official and the largest spoken language in Lagos is Portuguese. A large percentage of population also understands and speaks basic English. Most traffic signs and hotel menus have an English translation. Hence there should be no language problems for tourists who are visiting Lagos or the surrounding coastline.

Index30. Political Scenario

The Prime Minister of Portugal is the head of Government while the President of Portugal is the executive head of state. Executive power is exercised by the President and the Council of Ministers. There is no formal city government in Lagos.

31. Economic Scenario

Fishing has been important to Lagos since very ancient times and just like other coastal towns in Portugal, the city's economy is closely linked to the sea. A good percentage of population of Lagos is also associated with agriculture and forestry. Chies produce includes citrus fruits, figs, almonds, carob beans, strawberry trees and cork oaks. The city also relies heavily on the tourism industry.

Index32. Religious belief

Portugal has no official religion. The most predominant religion in Portugal is Roman Catholicism and approximately 81% of the population of the country is Catholic.

33. Visa requirements

If you have a Schengen visa, you can stay (but not work) in Lagos for approximately three months. EU nationals with residence permit may stay for as long as they like and can enter with a valid EU identity card too. However, registration at Bürgeramt office is mandatory for stays exceeding a few months. Nationals of Australia, New Zealand, Canada, USA and a few others can visit Lagos with a valid passport for a period of three months. Nationals of the rest of the world need to apply for a visa to visit the city.

34. Essential vaccination

Before your visit to Lagos, make sure you are up-to-date on routine vaccines like measles-mumps-rubella (MMR), varicella (chickenpox, polio and seasonal flu. Depending on the duration of your stay and the country you are traveling from, you might need vaccines for Hepatitis A and B. The World Health Organization recommends that you visit a physician at least six weeks before your departure.

35. Theft and Safety

Lagos is pretty safe for a European city and apart from existence of petty crimes such as pickpocketing and snatching, there is no major crime heard of in the city as such. The city is never really abandoned (even at night) but it makes sense to be careful especially if you are traveling alone. If you keep tabs on your possessions and apply common sense you should not face any problems. It is also advised you do not keep too much cash with you. Also try to avoid using ATMs at night.

36. Embassy/Consulate

For any emergencies, foreign tourists can get assistance at their embassies in Lagos. You can find the complete list of foreign representations in the city at: <http://embassy.goabroad.com/embassies-in/portugal>

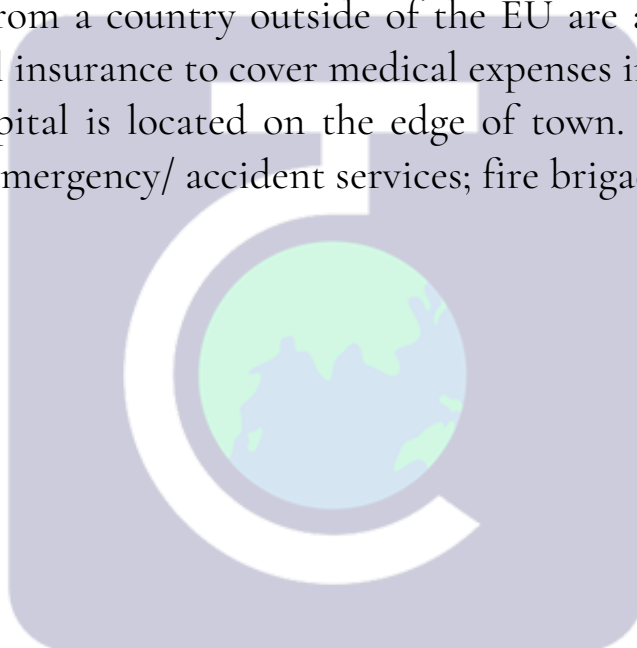

37. Accessibility

Most of the beaches in Lagos are wheelchair & mobility scooter accessible. Most of the buses and metro (trams) in the city also have good accessibility. You can also easily find wheelchair accessible hotels in the city.

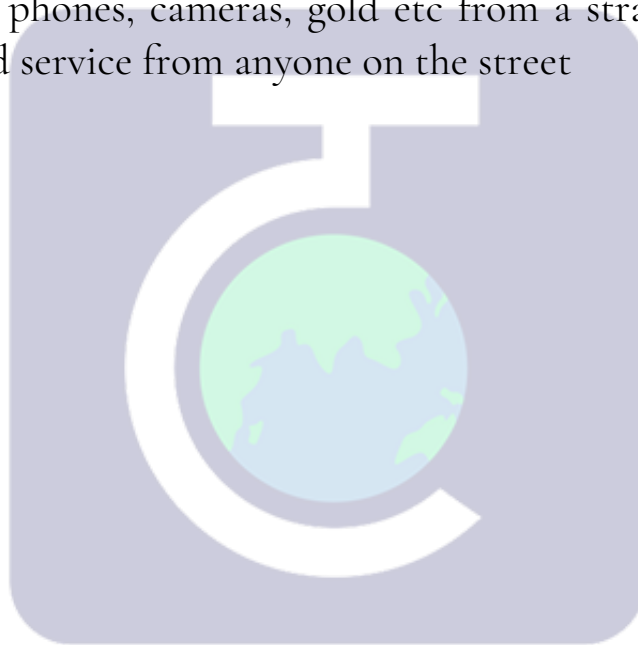

38. Emergencies

Having a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) will provide you access to Lagos's public healthcare system at greatly reduced cost. Since the EHIC will not cover medical repatriation, ongoing medical treatment or non-urgent treatment, it is advised that you sign up for an adequate travel insurance and accessible funds to cover the cost of any medical treatment and repatriation. Visitors who come from a country outside of the EU are advised to take out a valid, private medical insurance to cover medical expenses in Lagos. Hospital São Gonçalo Private hospital is located on the edge of town. Emergency numbers: Police - 110 Medical emergency/ accident services; fire brigade - 112

Index39. Do's and Don'ts

Do's ● Take the Boat Tour ● Ask for the prices or menu before ordering ● Carry your passport and ID card at all times ● Lock your bike properly ● Carry some cash. A lot of restaurants and shops do not accept credit cards ● Be wary of your surroundings at night, especially in the dark alleys. Do not's ● Leave your valuables unattended ● Walk in bicycle lane ● Spit on the road ● Leave tip on the table ● Buy cell phones, cameras, gold etc from a stranger in the street ● Accept any unwanted service from anyone on the street

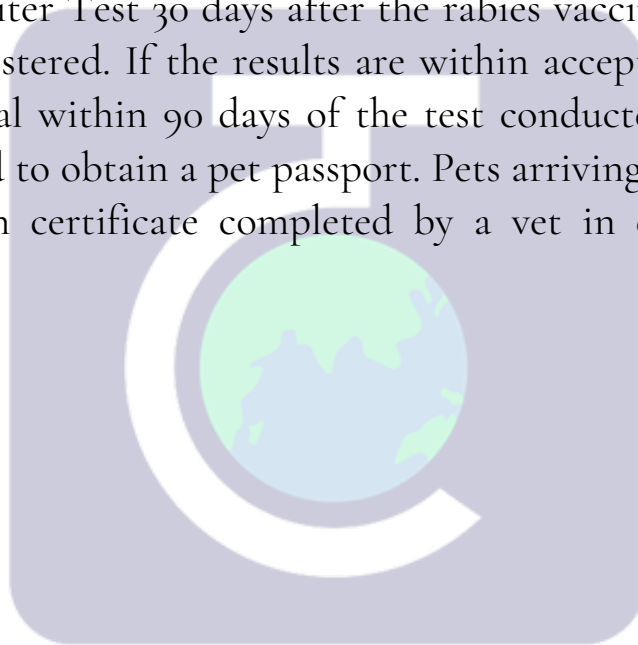

40.Tipping basics

Tipping is customary in Lagos. Depending on how happy you were with the service, you could tip 5-10% or round off the bill to the nearest Euro. A 10% tip generally means exemplary service. It is advised that you do not leave the tip on the table and rather hand it over to the waiter directly. Porters who take your bags in hotels usually expect a tip of €1.

Index41.Pet info

Lagos is a pet friendly city. There are, however, certain rules and regulations that you must adhere to before bringing pets into the country. i) Pet Microchip Your pet should be microchipped with an ISO 11784/ 11785 pet microchip ii) Proper Vaccination After the microchip, your pet will need a rabies vaccination, especially if you're traveling with them from a rabies-free or rabies-controlled country. iii) Blood Titer Test 30 days after the rabies vaccination, a Blood Titer Test must be administered. If the results are within acceptable limits, your pet can travel to Portugal within 90 days of the test conducted. Note: Pet owners from EU are required to obtain a pet passport. Pets arriving from outside the EU will require a health certificate completed by a vet in either Portuguese or English.
