11. Key local guides and tours

 Paulo Vans This company provides airport transfers and good day tours. Their service is really nice and the tour guides are very accommodating.  Felipe Tur This company also specializes in local airport transfers and provide specialized tours and transfers to the beaches of Ceara.

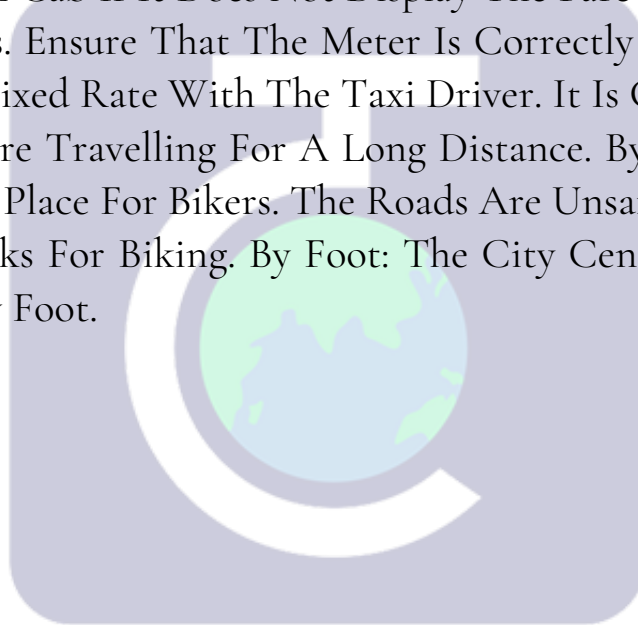

12. Transportation hubs

By Air: Fortaleza Has An International Airport Pinto Martins. This Airport Was Expanded And Reopened In 2014 But Still It Is Not Big Enough To Handle Lots Of Air Traffic. All Major Airlines Fly To All Major Cities Of Brazil, Mostly Via Sao Paulo. There Are Weekly Flights To International Destinations From This Airport. It Takes Around An Hour Or Two To Get The Immigration Process Completed, If Travelling From A Foreign Destination. For Reaching The City Center From The Airport By Bus, Take Urban Bus 404 Aeroporto/Benfica. This Bus Runs At Frequent Intervals From The Airport To The City Centre And Charges R$ 2.20 Per Person. Avoid Taking The Bus At Night Due To Safety Reasons. Taxis Are Also Readily Available And They Charge A Fixed Rate (R$ 32-40). The Distance Of The Airport From The City Center Is Around 10 Kms.

By Bus: Fortaleza Has A Major Airport Where Buses Come From All Nearby Cities. The Most Extensive Bus Network Is Called The Expresso Guanabara. The Last Long Distance Bus Leaves Around 7 PM. It Is Not Advisable To Travel In Bus Especially During Night For A Long Distance. Rodoviária São Tomé Is A Major Bus Station Located A Few Kms Away From The Airport.

Index13. Transportation cost

By Bus: Fortaleza Has Good Bus Route Connectivity And You Can Travel In A Very Economical Way. A Bus Ticket Costs Around R$ 2 And You Do Not Even Need To Purchase New Tickets If Changing The Bus Terminal. It Is Good To Know Your Bus Stops And The Locations You Are Heading To, While Traveling In The Local Bus. By Taxi: Fortaleza Has A Good Number Of Metered Taxis As Well. Do Not Take A Cab If It Does Not Display The Fare System On The Rear Side Of Its Windows. Ensure That The Meter Is Correctly Running Unless You Have Negotiated A Fixed Rate With The Taxi Driver. It Is Good To Negotiate A Fixed Price If You Are Travelling For A Long Distance. By Bicycle: Fortaleza Is Not A Very Friendly Place For Bikers. The Roads Are Unsafe And There Are No Special Cycling Tracks For Biking. By Foot: The City Center And The Beaches Are Best Explored By Foot.

Index14. Baggage allowance

Do Not Carry Large Bags When Riding In A Public Transport, Neither Is It Convenient Nor Is It Safe. It Is Better To Take A Local Taxi If You Have Large Bags With You. Carrying A Large Suitcase Is Allowed In Subways After Security Clearance, But Again It Is Better To Avoid. One Can Carry A Backpack Easily When Exploring The City, And Avoid Carrying Lots Of Cash Or Expensive Items With You. Take Minimum Things With You Even When Heading Out On The Beach.

Index15. Must try food and local savouries

Coconut Water Is Adequately Available Here And At R$ 2, It Is A Must Have When On The Beach. Being A Fishing Port, Almost All Restaurants In Fortaleza Serve Fresh Seafood. Fresh Fruits And Suco (fresh Fruit Juice) Are Also Commonly Had In Fortaleza. Note: Thursdays Are A Crab Day In Fortaleza.
